

Web table C Critical appraisal tool for assessment of economic impact

		Critical appraisal criterion number
F1. Is the underlying data transparent and valid?	A= Yes B= No	14
F2. What economic model is being utilised and how transparent is it?	Type of economic model
F3. Extent of estimated data	A= The model is largely utilised actual collected data B= The model is largely dependent on estimated data	15*
F4. Accounting for time	A= The model appropriately accounts for changes in values over time B= The model does not take account of changes in values over time appropriately	15*
F5. How transparent is the economic model being used?	A= Economic model being used is clear with explicit assumptions B= Economic model being used is not clear and/or the assumptions are not explicit	16
F6. Assumptions in the model	A= The assumptions in the model are valid B= The assumptions in the model are not clearly valid	16

* The study requires to be appraised as A for both question F3 and F4 to have met criterion 14.

 The study requires to be appraised as A for both question F5 and F6 to have met criterion 15.